

SHORT SUMMARY OF CV FOR WILLIAM KILANDER TO VISOKA

Mr. William Kilander was born in India and adopted by Swedish parents. He has lived in four different countries. He lived in India the three first years of his life and was partly brought up in Brazil and partly in Sweden.

Mr. Kilander, has also lived in Houston, Texas where he studied theatre and worked as a commercial model. He also spent over half a year in Seville, Spain as headbartender for a Swedish company during his former occupation.

On and off he also works as a Tourleader in Cuba, a country he has visited 23(!) times, mostly invited by the Cuban Tourist Office for making promotional films of Cuba in various areas such as; tourism, fashion, cigars and art.

He graduated from the Swedish university as TV-producer in 1996. In 1998 he founded his own company called KILWIL-TV. KILWIL-TV has worked with touristic films and travel films since 1998.

In 2007, the travel site www.travelfilm.se was launched. It is the leading travel site in Scandinavia. KILWIL-TV & Travelfilm.se has won several acclaimed and known awards for their travel documentaries. Most recently in Veliko Gradiste (Serbia) at the SILA-FEST of 2012.

Mr. Kilander speaks five languages and has travelled throughout nearly 70 countries.

On October 26th, he will be the guest at Visoka during the seminar "Making Touristic- and Travel films" and answer questions from the students.